

Jim Byrnes
Friday, Oct. 7, 2016

Actor and Blues Legend, Jim Byrnes returns to the Mount Elizabeth stage to bring you a night to remember. Jim was born in St. Louis, Missouri – that’s blues country. He grew up on the city’s north side where one of the neighbourhood bars had Ike and Tina Turner as the house band.

By age thirteen, Jim was singing and playing blues guitar and his first professional gig was in 1964. His evocative, smoky vocals emerge from a lifetime of experience.

Quartom
Friday, Oct. 28, 2016

Consisting of four talented, charismatic young singers, QUARTOM offers a concert where classical music blends with popular tunes. At times serious, at times playful, these four highly skilled voice musicians bring to the stage a level of a Capella music that is eclectic, versatile and thoroughly enjoyable.

The Wardens
Saturday, Nov. 19, 2016

These three park Wardens - Scott Ward, Bradley Bischoff, and Ray Schmidt - are a Banff National Park based trio whose stories rise from the very land they’ve protected for the last 30 years. The Wardens’ mountain music is a blend of folk, roots and western styles and is a true piece of Canadiana. Superb musicianship, haunting harmonies and chilling tales.

Joëlle Rabu & Nico Rhodes
Friday, Jan. 27, 2017

JOELLE RABU IN CONCERT promises an intimate evening of musicality and theatricality. The concert features songs performed in English, French and Spanish and presents a special tribute to a cornucopia of torch song era greats in addition to some moments spiced with laughter. Piaf fans won’t be disappointed, either!

Sarah Hagen
Saturday, Feb. 18, 2017

Canadian pianist Sarah Hagen has been heard in concert halls and on the airwaves throughout North America and Europe. Her interpretations have been described as "outstandingly inventive," and are performed with "infinite skill." A visionary and an idealist, Sarah's performances are conceptually innovative, involving photography, dance and spoken word. She is the Artistic Director for Pro'ject Sound, a performance project involving live piano with large-scale projected images.

Danny Nielsen: Love.Be.Best.-
Free

Friday, Feb. 24, 2017

Danny Nielsen is one of Canada’s brightest rising tap dance talents and has emerged on to the international scene wowing audiences in North America and Europe. He brings you his first full length production, a story that follows the transformation of a man who falls for a woman from another walk of life. How far will one go in losing themselves to find love?

Outerbridge: Clockwork
Mysteries

Saturday, Mar. 4, 2017

Clockwork Mysteries is a high-energy magical adventure for both adult and family audiences. Recognized as one of the most creative and dynamic shows of its kind, critics have hailed Ted and Marion Outerbridge as "the most successful magicians in Canada" (Montreal Gazette) and "champions of magic" (Bergedorfer Zeitung, Hamburg, Germany).

Atlantic Ballet: Phantom of the Opera
Monday, April 17, 2017

With original choreography by Igor Dobrovolskiy set to the music of Francis Poulenc, Phantom of the Opera features lush costumes created by Paul Daigle and an intriguing set design by Brian Perchaluk. Pierre Lavoie’s ethereal mix of light and shadows perfectly captures the eerie world where a love triangle ensnares, Erik, the beautiful ingénue whom Eric loves, and the dashing young viscount who wins her heart.
